monthly promotion maintenance package

This follow up package includes improvement tasks to maintain and maximize your online presence.

The rules of search engine marketing are constantly changing. Our job is to stay current with these changes and inform your marketing decisions appropriately. We charge a monthly fee and remain with you through the changes and challenges of the highly competitive world of internet marketing. We will provide you with ongoing advice and support for your website marketing strategy.

This package includes:

- Check your rankings every month in the main search engines and directories.
- Regularly re-optimize your website in accordance with updated search engine algorithms.
- Manage your Google Site Map™
- Re-submit your key pages when necessary.
- Submit your site to the new search engines and directories we constantly receive.
- Research and hand-submit your website to local websites, top industry, country and regional specific directories.
- Make suggestions to improve your rankings.
- Send monthly reports on the activity of the site.

NOTE: This package must be combined with the Internet Marketing Package
